ceived the prize for having correctly answered the largest number of the questions, and was presented with a handsome framed reproduction of the "Steps of Capital."

All of the supper was announced; amid strains of music the guests adjourned to the dining-room, which was decorated with palms, potted plants and cut flowers. Stretching from the chandeliers, which were shaded with blue and white, to each corner of the table were ribbons of blue and white, the colors of the club. The table was laden with choicest fruits, water ices and other delicacies of the season. The punch-bowl was presided over by Miss Berkeley Hooper, who received a pair of beautiful blue figures as the prize for propounding the best toast.

Among those present were Mesdames C. E. Booth, J. R. Hooper, Eugene A. Arnett and Woodville Page; Meses Josie Bellentine, Mayme Wharton, Elizabeth Macette, L. Elaine Wilder, Nannie Briggs, Jessie Payne, Berkeley Hooper, and Lillian Hall; Messrs. R. C. Booth, J. R. Hanover, Eugene A. Arnett, Woodville Page, John R. Hulcher, D. E. Doyle, Harvey C. Clarke, W. D. Anderson, George P. Cunniff, Charles M. Mundy, Francis G. Walker, A. S. Kellam, George B. Briggs, Thomas Cox, Charles Turner and others.

Tenth Annual Report.

The tenth annual report of the Woman's Club proves that the club has entered upon the most flourishing period of its existence.

The treasurer's report shows that the club has expended $1,700 worth of bonds have been reduced, leaving a balance on hand, March 1st, of $35.44.

The president, Miss Jane Lutherford, says in her report:

"Our membership, fluctuating at times, has today the largest number of active members we have ever had on our books, with an unusually large number of resident members."

Wagner Recital.

The programme at a Wagner recital given by the senior members of Mrs. L. C. Tucker's class Friday afternoon included the following numbers:

1. Grand March from Tannhauser, Miss Nellie Epps.
2. Pilgrim's Chorus, Miss Minnie Cogbill.
3. Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin, Miss Bertha Myers.
4. Introduction to Act II from Lohengrin, Miss Edna Gordon.
5. Selection from Parsifal and Flying Dutchman, Mrs. L. C. Tucker.

Hartigan—Glenn.

The marriage of Miss Clara Elizabeth Glenn and Mr. Augustus Fisher Hartigan took place on April 12th at 12 o'clock at St. Matthew's Church, New York city. The Rev. Arthur Judge officiated.

Miss Glenn was attended by Miss Frances Cooper as maid of honor, and the best man was Mr. Harmon, of New York. Immediately after the ceremony the couple left for an extended trip through the South and West, visiting Fort Worth, Dallas, San Antonio, Austin, Memphis, Tenn., at which point Mr. Hartigan's private car awaited them, and proceeding thence through the entire schedule.

The wedding gifts were valuable and beautiful. Mr. Hartigan's gift to his bride was a watch and chain set with diamonds; from his mother a complete house-furnishing of antique furniture; from his father a diamond brooch; from Mrs. Glenn a collection of rare china, gathered from various countries; from Miss Peter Dunn—Mr. Doyle—a silver coffee set; from Miss Glenn's Sunday school class a handsome piece of cut glass, as well as a large and varied lot of odd pieces in silver and cut glass. The going-away gown was a Paris creation of brown broadcloth, lined with heavy white satin. The trousseau was of simple elegance and was hand made by the nuns in the province of France.

Telegrams of good wishes and congratulations were received during the day, as well as cut flowers in profusion.

Miss Glenn is a niece of Mr. and Mrs. Willie J. Gilman, a granddaughter of Mrs. M. E. Denzer, and is well known in Richmond. She was educated at St. Joseph's Academy in this city, and about four years ago, in company with her mother and brother, went abroad and made an extended tour of Europe, remaining more than a year. It was in Paris that Mr. Hartigan met her. After introduction to the little party from the Johns Hopkins University, of Baltimore, of which Mrs. Glenn, her son and daughter were members. The marriage of April 12th is the result of that introduction.

Mr. Hartigan is associated with his brothers in railroad construction in the West. He is a civil engineer of high standing, and has attained an enviable business position.

Valentine Kindergarten.

The regular monthly meeting of the Valentine Kindergarten Mothers' Club was held Thursday, the 14th inst., with a large number of ladies in attendance. The officers of vice-president and treasurer being made vacant by the succession of Mrs. Ullman to the presidency, an election was called to fill these positions. Mrs. Ernest L. Lindsay was elected vice-president by a flattering vote. Mrs. Thomas Muldowney was unanimously re-elected. The children will come in full dress and the occasion will be one of enjoyment to all. Special features will render the afternoon one of unusual importance. The meeting of the class will be resumed next season. Those belonging to it are: Miss Caroline Preston, Miss Evelyn B. Warwick, Master George Munce, Master Marshall Muncie, Miss Mary Evans, Miss Margaret Evans, Miss Grace Gilliam, Miss Julia Howell, Miss Elizabeth Frazier, Miss Mildred Williams, Miss Marguerite McVeigh and Pleasant Tyler.

Union Meeting.

The regular monthly meeting of the Primary Teachers' Union will be held in the Presbyterian Publishing House, on Sixth Street, between Broad and Grace Streets, at 4:30 o'clock Monday afternoon. All Sunday school teachers are cordially invited to be present.

Miss Whitfield Complimented.

Miss Emma Moorehead Whitfield has been urged to accept the principalship of the art department in Judson College, Marion, Alabama, a famous and time-honored institution.

The fact that Miss Whitfield has had 28 years' experience in the work of an executive in portrait and heraldic work, that she has established her studio in Richmond, and that her mother's health is very strong, has decided her to decline this very flattering offer.

Smith—Schmidt.

Mr. A. D. Smith, one of Manchester's most popular young men, will be married at Wilmington, Delaware, to visit his relatives. After spending several days with Mr. William Evans, his uncle, he will join Miss Emma Schmidt at Philadelphia, where they will be married on April 20th, by the Rev. Mr. O'Hara.

Miss Schmidt is the highly accomplished and attractive daughter of Herman Schmidt, the well known grocer.

Mr. Smith is a valued employee of a well known insurance company.

After an extended trip, Mr. and Mrs. Smith will return to make their home at No. 120 South Third Street.

Weddings of the Past Week.

Prominent among the weddings of the past week was that of Miss Grace Elliott Shields to Mr. Thomas H. Russell, of New York. The marriage took place Tuesday at 1 P. M. in St. Paul's Church, and the bride was given away by her cousin, Mr. Charles Shields, of this city.

Miss Emily Sublett Jennings and Mr. C. Leo Morrison, of Waterbury, N. J., were married Tuesday at 6 P. M. in the home of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Haynes, of No. 19 South Third Street.

Mr. Norvel Knox Wilson was quietly celebrated at 1 P. M. Thursday in the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Tanner, the Rev. Dr. W. R. L. Smith officiating.

Personal Mention.

Mrs. T. O. Parker and her little son, Rutledge Armistead Parker, of Washington, D. C., who have been spending the winter with Mrs. A. T. Armistead, of No. 27 West Franklin Street, have left the city to join a house party given by Mr. William A. Gathright, at his country home in Louisa county, Va.

There will be a silver tea given under the auspices of the Woman's Alliance, at No. 110 West Main Street, on Wednesday, April 20th, at 8 P. M. A programme will be rendered and refreshments served. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Miss Georgia Slaughter Borton is the guest of Mrs. A. C. Carneal, at No. 22 West Grace Street.

Owing to recent bereavement in the family of Mr. T. William Pemberton, Mrs. Pemberton will not be able to entertain the Pianola Club and choir of the Second Presbyterian Church on April 21st, as she had expected and intended.

The Rev. Dr. J. W. Morris, who labored so long in the Brazilian mission field, will deliver an address under the auspices of the Woman's Auxiliary in Epiphany Church, Barton Heights, next Sunday evening, April 24th, at 8 o'clock.

All branches of the auxiliary in Richmond and vicinity and the public generally are cordially invited to attend.

Miss Melville Daniels, accompanied by Mrs. Fred Jones, Miss Mary Somerville Jones, Masters R. D. Ward and Fred Jones, Jr., will be at Hot Springs, Va., for a short stay.

Miss Lizzie Umlauf, who was operated upon for appendicitis at Memorial Hospital, is improving rapidly.

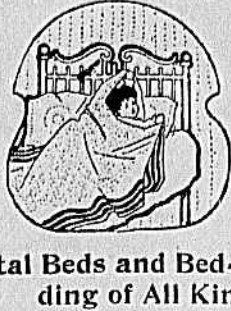

The Kate Wheelock Club will meet next Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. D. T. Williams, at No. 210 East Franklin Street.

Invitations have been received in Richmond for the marriage of Miss Margaret

OIL AND GAS.

Great Interest Manifested in the Indications in Greensville.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
EMPORIA, VA., April 16.—The people of Emporia and this section of Greensville county are highly enthused over the prospect of finding petroleum and gas, and hundreds of enquiries daily reach the city from a distance asking that immediate answers be given concerning the oil and gas situation here.

The article that appeared in The Times-Dispatch of last Sunday, in which mention was made that oil and gas wells would be drilled here at an early date, evidently has been read far and wide, it has been accepted as a criterion, while very cautious in their remarks, an influx of strangers already on the ground positively assert to residents that petroleum products are here in paying quantities beyond doubt, and it only will require a short time to fully demonstrate the fact.

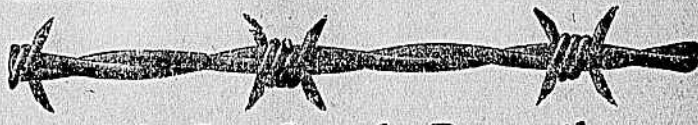

As has been stated, the full number of acres of land wanted was two thousand. This number has been secured by the prospectors under lease, and the work of selecting the latest improved gas and oil well machinery will be produced at an early date. The work of drilling the wells will go forward upon its arrival in Emporia. Only two large wells will be sunk in the initial experiment, and these in all probability will be located near the central part of the town upon Carden, who will lecture on "Architecture and European Exhibits at St. Louis Exposition," in college chapel, Monday evening, the 18th.

Lieutenant Carden is an easy, fluent speaker, and his descriptions are especially vivid and entertaining. It will be a stereopticon lecture, and will be the finest possible pictorial description of the many subjects. The lecture uses technicalities only when necessary, and then he explains what is meant.

Dr. Boatwright and Dr. Ryland attended the meeting of the board of managers of the Newport News Academy last week, and found the school in a most prosperous condition. The building will have to be enlarged to accommodate the students next session. Professor Gaines, of Richmond College, recently delivered an interesting lecture before the academy. Professor S. C. Mitchell leaves this week for Birmingham, Ala., where he is to address the education conference of the South. Dr. W. C. Taylor, of Petersburg, made a most delightful talk in the college chapel Friday morning. Dr. Taylor is a fine speaker, and his remarks were greatly enjoyed by faculty and students.

Dr. Boatwright has arranged for an interesting course of addresses on some of the leading topics of the day. The addresses are to be delivered on each week, at which time classes will be suspended and the students will spend the hour in the chapel, where the addresses will be delivered. In the series Dr. W. C. Taylor, of Petersburg, will speak on "The Ministerial Office"; Dr. George Ben Johnston, "The Medical Profession"; Commissioner G. W. Kolner, on "The Profession of Farming," and several other distinguished speakers will be delivered later on "The Law," "Journalism" and "Engineering."

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, the Best
"In my opinion Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the best made for colds," says Mrs. Cora Walker, of Porterville, California. There is no doubt about its being the best. No other remedy will cure a cold so quickly. No other is so sure a preventive of pneumonia. No other is so pleasant and safe to take. These are good reasons why it should be preferred to any other. The fact is, that few people are satisfied with any other after having once used this remedy. For sale by all druggists.

One of the features of an entertainment given on Thursday evening, in the lecture-room of the Broad Street Methodist Church, was the drill of a military company of young ladies, who had been drilled by Captain George M. Skiplaw. The company was composed of the following: Miss Josephine Christian, first sergeant; Miss Lillie Bondall, second sergeant; Miss Belle Burch, Miss Pearl Burton, Miss Cora Briggs, Miss Grace Briggs, Miss Blanche Booth, Miss Carrie Ellerson, Miss Tilly Forbes, Miss Annie May Mappin, Miss Lina Montgomery, Miss Lora Parsons, Miss Adeline Phillips, Miss Kate Phillips, Miss Mary Price, Miss Mabett Russell, Miss Grace Slaughter, Miss Eva Slaughter, Miss Frances Shaver, Miss Lillian Thaw, Miss Florence Wood and Miss Ethel Yeamans.

OLD POINT COMFORT.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
OLD POINT COMFORT, VA., April 16.—Old Point continues to be, socially, very gay, and last week was a very charming one for the guests at the hotel.

Last Saturday evening Mrs. George F. Adams gave a dinner for Miss Florence Watkins, of Lynchburg, who is visiting her aunt, Mrs. O. D. Batchelor, in Newport News.

On Monday evening Mrs. Adams' guests at dinner were Lady Kirkpatrick and Mrs. R. J. Christy, of Canada; Major and Mrs. Ogden Rufford, Captain and Mrs. Merriam, Lieutenant and Mrs. Fred L. Perry, Lieutenant and Mrs. Charles D. Winn, of Fort Monro.

On Friday evening Miss Eleanor Painter, of Pittsburg, gave a dinner, at which her guests were Miss Lucy Brown, of New York; Miss Edna McMurray, of Rye, N. Y.; Lieutenant and Mrs. Curtis Henderson, Miss Ruth Cummings, Lieut. E. H. Jewell, Henry B. Clark, Laurin L. Lawson, James Totten, B. B. Hennessy, Read and Ross, of Fort Monroe.

Very interesting event of the week was the bridge tournament, which was given in the parlors of the Chamberlain Hotel, Thursday evening. Among the enthusiastic bridge players at the hotel, are General Caleb H. Catton, U. S. A., retired; Miss Sullivan, of Washington, D. C.; Miss Painter and the Misses Painter, of Pittsburg; Mrs. Francis W. Brown and Lieutenants, Mrs. F. S. Cooke, of Fort Monroe.

Recent arrivals at the Chamberlain include Mrs. F. S. Hope, of Portsmouth, Miss Ruth H. Peterson, of St. Paul, Minn., Mrs. M. M. Lyons, Richmond; Mr. and Mrs. John G. Christopher, Jacksonville, Fla.; Mr. and Mrs. Robert B. Wood, the properties owned by Mrs. Thlar, her daughter, Mrs. Landon, Mr. Cook, and Mr. Connel, of Macon, Miss.; John Critcher, of Alexandria.

This company, who has purchased Variety, expect to build a number of new buildings and remodel the large and handsome main building, and it will be hereafter conducted as a nervous sanitarium and summer, as well as winter, resort. It is also proposed to ship the various mineral waters to other points.

These springs have long had a reputation for its many health restoring qualities of the different waters found there. The gentlemen constituting the board are reputable gentlemen, and men of wide reputation, who promise to build these springs up to the standard of other such health resorts in this country.

The old frame building near the Chesapeake and Ohio depot, owned by Baker & Brown, and used by them for years as a warehouse, is now being torn down and will be replaced by a five story brick building. The building now standing was erected in the early days by Colonel J. M. Harman, and was used by Harman & Abney as a storeroom for whiskey. Colonel Imboden, who was later on General Imboden, had his headquarters in this old house before the secession of Virginia from the Union.

It was raised. It was at this building also that the first sentinel of the Civil War was posted in Staunton, he being Captain Leroy P. Dufferin, who is still among Staunton's veterans in this city.

need have no fear of the ordinary ailments and mishaps of mankind. Hamlin's Wizard Oil is a safeguard for children, a comfort to parents, a boon to the old folks. It will pay to keep this old-time reliable family medicine always on hand in case of need.

John Smith, Starbuck, Minn., writes April 13, 1901: "I have been in bed for four weeks with a Sprained Back, caused by too heavy lifting. I have tried almost every remedy, but nothing has helped me. I have used Hamlin's Wizard Oil and in two days I was able to work."

W. L. Steele, Santa Barbara, Cal., writes: "My child fell from a high chair upon a hot stove and burned in forehead and side of face severely. It suffered intensely for three days, when we commenced using Hamlin's Wizard Oil. The pain was relieved in twenty minutes and the burns healed in about five days."
